

The Princess and the Cookie Jar

Once upon a time there was a little girl named Yulisa. She was the prettiest princess in the world. She also lived in the nicest, prettiest, biggest castle of all time. Her best friends, Janice and Jessica were also little princesses. One day while they were at Yulisa's castle they all wanted some cookies.

"I have an idea! How about we get some from the cookie jar?" Yulisa said.

So they went into the red kitchen and tried to get to the cookie jar filled with all her favorite cookies.

They get on top of the counter where the cookie jar is suppose to be but then Janice sees that the cookie jar is gone. "Where is the cookie jar? It's not here!" Janice said.

"Are you sure?" Yulisa asked.

So they looked all over the kitchen, but they could not find it. "Lets look around the castle!" exclaimed Yulisa. So they looked all over the castle, but they still couldn't find it.

"Where could it have gone?" Janice and Jessica asked.

Then Bon Bon walks in and says, "Lets look around the forest, maybe someone took it."

"That is a great idea!" Yulisa said.

They all get on a different pony, Yulisa got on Cupcake, Janice got on Bon Bon, and Jessica got on Little Hoof. The ponies began to run, after a few seconds they started to fly.

While they flew they were able to touch the clouds.

"This is so cool! Now lets start looking for that cookie jar," Yulisa said.

As they searched through the clouds and on the ground in the sky..

Then they saw a gumdrop mountain, and decided to stop to see if the cookie jar is there. The mountain is peaceful, where there were bunnies and little kittens that sang and danced to and fro.

"Go to the mountain, Cupcake!" Yulisa told the pony.

As they arrived at the gumdrop mountain to see all the small, little, furry kittens and bunnies.

"They are so cute!" they all said. Yulisa and her friends spent some time with the cute, furry, little animals and then Yulisa said, "What is that smell? It smells like cookies!"

They started to look around and they all smelled the cookies more and more. Then they all stumbled upon the cookie jar.

"Look! The cookie jar," Janice said.

Yulisa picked up the cookie jar happy and smiled.

All of a sudden she started to wake up!

Yulisa woke up, it was only a dream. She saw her mom with a warm batch of cookies on a plate.

"Cookies! My favorite, thanks mom," said Yulisa. Right next to her sat, her stuffed pony, bunny, and cat.

"I had the best dream ever!" Yulisa said.

1. Once upon a time there was a little girl	2. Her best friends, Janice and Jessica	3. "I have an idea! How about we get	4. They get on top of the counter where the
---	---	--------------------------------------	---

named Yulisa. She was the prettiest princess in the world. She also lived in the nicest, prettiest, biggest castle of all time. done	were also little princesses. One day while they were at Yulisa's castle they all wanted some cookies. done	some from the cookie jar?" Yulisa said. So they went into the red kitchen and tried to get to the cookie jar filled with all her favorite cookies. done	cookie jar is suppose to be but then Janice sees that the cookie jar is gone. "Where is the cookie jar? It's not here!" Janice said. "Are you sure?" Yulisa asked. done
5. So they looked all over the kitchen, but they could not find it. "Lets look around the castle!" exclaimed Yulisa. So they looked all over the castle, but they still couldn't find it.	6. Where could it have gone?" Janice and Jessica asked. Then Bon Bon walks in and says, "Lets look around the forest, maybe someone took it." "That is a great idea!" Yulisa said. Done	7. They all get on a different pony, Yulisa got on Cupcake, Janice got on Bon Bon, and Jessica got on Little Hoof. The ponies began to run, after a few seconds they started to fly. done	8. While they flew they were able to touch the clouds. "This is so cool! Now lets start looking for that cookie jar," Yulisa said. done
9. As they searched through the clouds and on the ground in the sky..	10 Then they saw a gumdrop mountain, and decided to stop to see if the cookie jar is there. The mountain is peaceful, where there were bunnies and little kittens that sang and danced to and fro. done	11. "Go to the mountain, Cupcake!" Yulisa told the pony. done	12 As they arrived at the gumdrop mountain to see all the small, little, furry kittens and bunnies. "They are so cute!" they all said. Yulisa and her friends spent some time with the cute, furry, little animals. done
13. Yulisa said, "What is that smell? It smells like cookies!" done	14. They started to look around and they all smelled the cookies more and more. Then they all stumbled upon the cookie jar.	15 "Look! The cookie jar," Says Janice. done	16. Yulisa picks up the cookie jar happy and smiling. done done.

17. All of a sudden some strange smell started waking her up.	18. She wakes up only to find that it was a dream, and then...	19. She then seen her mom walk into her room with a warm batch of chocolate chip cookies.	20. "Cookies! My favorite, thanks mom," says Yulisa.
21. Her mother sets the plate in front of her and gives her some milk and two out of the many warm cookies she made.	22. As she thanks her mother....	23. Yulisa bites into one of the cookies.	24. She begins to tell her mother about her dream and how she, Janice, and Jessica went adventuring.
25. After Yulisa gets done with her wild and crazy story her mother laughs and gives her more milk and another cookie.	26. Yulisa smiles and says thank you.	27. Then, she looks at Cupcake, Bon Bon, and, Little Hoof and she smiles.	28. The End
29. Non-Fiction Research		30. Non-Fiction Research

-<http://whatscookingamerica.net/History/CookieHistory.htm>

- dated back to the 7th century in Persia
- The first people to bring cookies to the United States were The English, The Dutch, and The Scotch.

-<http://www.kitchenproject.com/history/cookies.htm>

- The first cookie ever made was an accident.
- Cooks used a small amount of cake batter to test their oven temperature before making a cake. These little test cakes were called "koekje", meaning "little cake" in Dutch.
- The Dutch made the 'cookie' popular, when they came to America.
- The first American cookie was originally brought to this country by the English, Scots, and Dutch immigrants.
- Our "butter cookies" are similar to the English tea cakes and the Scotch shortbread.

-<http://www.best-ever-cookie-collection.com/history-of-cookies.html>

- By the 14th century cookies were common all over Europe

- Later in the 18th century cook books were being published that had different cookie recipes
- In other places like Germany, United Kingdom, or Italy cookies are called Biscuits.
- some examples of cookies could be
 - Chocolate cookies
 - Snicker doodles
 - Fortune Cookies

Sam: Article Name-

Cookies! Cookies! Cookies!

Author- Kathy Gunst

PREP TIME: 10 MINUTES

CHILLING TIME: 1 HOUR

BAKING TIME: ABOUT 15 MINUTES

YIELD: ABOUT 70 COOKIES

A variation on an old Austrian cookie, these are irresistible when rolled in powdered sugar. You can also shape them into balls.

2 sticks (1 cup) butter, at room temperature

1/2 cup brown sugar

Pinch of salt

1 cup finely chopped pecans, almonds, or walnuts

1 tsp vanilla extract, or 1/2 tsp

vanilla extract and 1/2 tsp

almond extract

2 cups all-purpose flour, sifted

1. In a mixer, cream butter and sugar until fluffy. Add salt, nuts, and vanilla extract; mix well. Add flour and mix well; dough should be crumbly.
2. Form dough into ball; place on waxed paper. Refrigerate for 1 hour.
3. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Remove dough from refrigerator and let it come to room temperature (about 10 minutes). Roll a tablespoon of dough into a snake shape 1 1/2 inches long and 1 inch thick, and shape into a crescent. Or roll dough into balls. Place on ungreased baking sheets and bake about 15 minutes, or until lightly browned.
4. Place confectioners' sugar on a large plate. Roll cookies while still warm in sugar. Let cool, then roll again in sugar; shake off excess.
5. HOW KIDS CAN HELP Make shapes; roll cookies in sugar.

PER SERVING (1 cookie): 59 calories, 4 g fat (1 g saturated), 30 mg sodium, 7 mg cholesterol.