Classroom Ideas for Cloud Computing

- Use the Educreations app to create and store lessons

- Explore digital portfolios to store and display teacher/student work projects or work samples

- Utilise web-based mind mapping programs to store teacher/student ideas

- Investigate how blogs can be used in classroom programs, across schools and globally

- Tag up student photos, documents, or projects to Google Earth

- Explore Google Docs for collaboration and storage

- Use Aurasma studio to tag up student created artwork and videos